Actor, Voice Over Artist and Music Producer with an international upbringing

Morten began his creative career in Shanghai, China where he performed extensively as a DJ and as part of a band across the cities many venues and festivals. After having completed his studies, he was accepted on to the BA in Acting course at The Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts (LIPA), graduating with the Lady Olivier Award for Acting.

Having grown up in both Denmark and China, Morten is fluent in Danish and English, while maintaining a high level of conversational Chinese. Thanks to his Scandinavian heritage he is also easily able to understand both Swedish and Norwegian.

Morten has worked with a variety of clients internationally with Terry-Russell Ltd, in Austria, Sweden, Germany, Switzerland and through-out the UK. Recent clients include: Outbrain, JTI and Nationwide Banking.

Morten currently produces music under the name 'Dillistone' and has had releases on Universal, Island Records, Seeking Blue and more and he looks forward to making his mark on the industry.

He is an enthusiastic and constructive actor and coach, who is not afraid to question anything.

Morten is currently based in London, where he is focusing on developing his professional career within the arts.

His greatest challenge has been to leave the world behind every time he has had to move.

His favourite food is sushi, and he would rather have a double espresso than a cup of tea!

Her greatest achievement is keeping a sense of fun and excitement through adversity.
